Confessions -

Second Wednesday of the month after Mass

Fourth Sunday of the month after Mass

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 19, 2025

The Gospel uses the image of the widow who knocks on the door of the judge repeatedly until she gets her way. While Jesus is clear the Father is not like this judge, we should take a cue regarding the necessity to reach out to God in prayer, in some fashion. Perhaps, as we consider this parable, we may realize in our lives we haven't been knocking on the father's door in prayer in any real way.

Pope Leo recognizes many people "knock late on the Father's door." Do you feel this may have happened in your life? Do you feel you've wasted any years in sin or far from God?

Well, good news! Pope Leo says, "Today's Gospel goes on to describe the characteristics of God's Fatherhood through vivid images: that of a man who gets up in the middle of the night to assist a friend in welcoming an unexpected visitor, and that of a parent who is concerned about giving good things to his children.

These images remind us God never turns his back on us when we come to him, even if we arrive late to knock at his door, perhaps after mistakes, missed opportunities failures, or even if, in order to welcome us, he has to "wake up" his children who are sleeping at home. Indeed, in the great family of the Church, the Father does not hesitate to make us all participants in each of His loving gestures. The Lord always listens to us when we pray to Him. If He sometimes responds in ways or at times that are difficult to understand, it is because he acts with wisdom and providence, which are beyond our understanding. Even in these moments, then, let us not cease to pray – and pray with confidence – for in Him we will always find light and strength.

God Bless,
Fr. Cory Rohlwing

As a way to celebrate this milestone there will be cupcakes after Mass on Sunday, October 26.

We are looking for people of all ages to help in this important role. Please contact the parish office for more information.

The prayer chain list is getting out of date. Please take a moment and look on page 2 to see if you may have placed someone on the list and they can now be taken off. It will be your responsibility to contact the parish office either by phone or e-mail if you want someone to REMAIN on the prayer chain. Those who asked to remain on the list will do so and all others will be taken off for the October 26 bulletin.

All are welcome to attend Adoration on Thursday evenings from 6-7 pm. Please come and spend some prayerful time with the Blessed Sacrament.

This week there is the annual collection for World Mission Sunday. It is the one day when the church gathers in prayer and sacrificial giving to proclaim the Gospel is for all people, in all lands. Please be generous.

Book of Deceased

There is a book on the table in the atrium to write names of deceased relatives and friends you would like us to pray for during the month of November. The book will be placed near the altar on All Souls' Day and we will pray for the souls listed during the month of November.
