Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 26, 2025

The subject of today's gospel is humility. Do you see value in humility? Some ancient philosophers even hold up pride as a great virtue, discounting humility as weakness. Sadly, there are few souls that obtain the actual virtue of humility. Some may obtain a certain semblance of this virtue, but few actually become humble to a great degree.

Humility can only be understood and embraced by a special grace of God. Naturally speaking, we are drawn to those things we deem to be beneficial to us. When we understand humility, we will desire it. And when we desire it, we will be drawn to it. And when drawn to it, we will more easily embrace it.

Do you understand humility? Christian humility is an inner attitude of "lowliness of mind" that involves recognizing one's dependence on God, not a posture of self-hatred or self-abasement. It means thinking of yourself less and valuing others more, giving credit to God for your talents, and living a life of service that seeks to honor Him above all else. This virtue is exemplified by Jesus Christ's life of obedience and sacrifice, and it is a prerequisite for receiving God's grace.

You will find, in this discovery you begin to choose God over yourself and thus, you become transformed into God's grace rather than living by your own strength. God must possess you completely, live within you and live through you. In this way your humble soul becomes Christ to the world.

God bless,
Fr. Cory Rohlfing

Welcome to all those visiting us today. We invite everyone to continue to celebrate Mass with us at St. Michael's. Please let the parish office know if we can be of assistance to you.
