Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 5, 2025

As Catholics, we believe every human person is made in the image and likeness of God. Every human life is therefore sacred and should be protected and cherished from conception to natural death. This has to be our starting point. If every human life is not sacred and a God given right, then life can be taken away by another authority in this world. It cannot be since God is the ultimate authority.

This week we celebrate Respect Life Sunday. As we celebrate this day we put our faith into practice. This year we are sending some members of our youth group to the local Pregnancy Options gala. They, along with a clergy, will be at the celebration with other members of St. Michael Catholic Church and other denominations of faith. We will also take a second collection for the needs of Pregnancy Options. We pray for pro-life movements around the world. We lead with our faith by serving men, women, and babies along with our elderly and everyone in-between. We sometimes feel guilty we cannot serve everyone at all times, but we do what we are able.

Our faith is so central to the way we live and act. St. Luke records Jesus's lessons on the power of faith to the size of a mustard seed. Jesus teaches we are to forgive a person who offends us and sins against us seven times in one day, and we are to forgive them "seven times" seven as a symbolic number. The number seven was a covenant number. In other words, to "seven" oneself meant to give oneself to another entirely. Even God on the seventh day of creation was giving himself as a gift to us. It also represents completeness.

The apostles find this saying hard, especially because they are going to exercise leadership roles in the Church. That is why they ask for an increase in faith. Jesus responds even a little faith – faith the size of a mustard seed – is powerful and can do the seemingly impossible. Jesus follows this up with a parable and asks the apostles to think of themselves as a master who has servants ready to wait on him at table. But Jesus switches the role. He teaches his apostles even though they exercise authority in the Kingdom of God, they are to consider themselves as (seven) servant, who only did what God commanded them.

God bless,
Fr. Cory Rohlfing

Welcome to all those visiting us today. We invite everyone to continue to celebrate Mass with us at St. Michael's. Please let the parish office know if we can be of assistance to you.

Bingo Party - November 22nd at 7 PM!

- We will again be having a basket silent auction at the November bingo party. Please consider donating a basket. Baskets can be brought to the parish office at any time.
- Donations are needed for the turkeys and hams, pop, water, bottles for the bottle raffle, door prizes, and bars.

We are always in great need of workers and donations!

Sign-up sheets are on the bulletin board. Thank you!

Our faith formation classes begin at 9 am, and this includes one class held in the back overflow of the church. It is hard to conduct class with background noise, and we gently ask if the parishioners could do their visiting in the hall or atrium. This would help us very much.

Join us in praying the Rosary in honor of the Anniversary of the 6th Marian Apparition at Fatima

Monday, October 13 at 7 pm.

Rosary will be prayed in front of St. Michael's Church.

Altar Servers needed!

Altar servers have the privilege of assisting the priest in the sanctuary during the Mass and other liturgical functions. Would you be willing to serve our parish in this capacity? We are looking for people of all ages to help in this important role. Please contact the parish office for more information.

The prayer chain list is getting out of date. Please take a moment and look on page 2 to see if you may have placed someone on the list and they can now be taken off. It will be your responsibility to contact the parish office either by phone or e-mail if you want someone to REMAIN on the prayer chain. Those who asked to remain on the list will do so and all others will be taken off for the October 26 bulletin.

Have you discontinued your landline? Have you changed your phone numbers?

Please update your contact information with the parish office if it has changed. Thank you!
